

---

AADCAP 2023 PROGRAM SCHEDULE

---

1:30- 2:00 pm

Agenda & Introduction

Tami Benton, MD
AADCAP President

---

KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS

---

Sponsored by the AADCAP Clinical Affairs and Administration Committees

2:00 - 2:50 pm

The Developmental Trajectory of Expanding Urgent Pediatric Emergency Mental Health Care Systems

James G. Waxmonsky, MD

Division Chief, Child & Adolescent Psychiatry and Vice Chair for Children's Services, Penn State Health Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, Hershey, PA

Courtney Cinko, MD

Director of ED Services, Cincinnati Children's Hospital, Cincinnati, OH

Dr. Cinko was born and raised outside of Chicago, Illinois. She received her B.S. in Biology from DePaul University and completed her medical training at Rush Medical College. She then continued her learning journey at Cincinnati Children's Hospital and the University of Cincinnati with a combined residency in Pediatrics, General Psychiatry, and Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Since completion of her residency training, Dr. Cinko has served in multiple capacities within Cincinnati Children's Division of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. She worked for five years as the Medical Director for Partial Hospitalization and currently heads both the triple board residency training program and the Emergency Psychiatry service. Her academic work has focused on educating community pediatricians to improve access to pediatric mental health treatment, quality improvement in patient flow, and media relations.

2:50 - 3:00 pm      Break

3:00 - 3:50pm

The Development of an Autism Unit and Inpatient Collaborative

Matthew Siegal, MD

Vice President of Medical Affairs for the Developmental Disorders Service Line of Maine Behavioral Healthcare

Dr. Siegal is Vice President of Medical Affairs for the Developmental Disorders Service Line of Maine Behavioral Healthcare, Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Pediatrics of Tufts University, and Faculty Scientist at Maine Health Institute for Research. His educational background includes undergraduate studies at Amherst College followed by Stanford Medical School, and training at Brown University in child psychiatry and pediatrics. He is passionate about, and nationally-recognized for, his work with systems of care and research involving children with autism, intellectual disability and co-occurring emotional and behavioral disorders. Clinical Interest: Autism Spectrum Disorders, Intellectual Disability, Psychiatric Comorbidity

3:50 - 4:00 pm

Closing Remarks

David Axelson, MD
President-Elect